

Dear Quilting Colleague,

If you're like most quilters, you love seeing how other quilters have expressed their creativity, challenged their skills, and mastered new techniques. We invite you to feed your curiosity and plan a road trip with your quilting friends to the 38th Annual Cocheco Quilters Guild Quilt Show at the Rochester NH Community Center on October 12 & 13, 2019.

Your bus or car caravan will have easy access to plenty of free parking. The Community Center is fully wheelchair and handicap accessible, with all facilities and show activities on a single level. Admission is $8 per day or $10 for two days, and young quilters under 12 are free. Bonus for groups: $1 off advance tickets when buying 5 or more

INFO: www.cochecoquilters.com

Our show features more than 200 quilts of all sizes -- bed quilts, table toppers, wall hangings and art quilts -- all stitched with care by our members. You can pick up new tools, just the right fabric, or test drive a new machine at one of our vendor booths. Take home a handmade creation purchased from our Cocheco Boutique. Take a chance on one of the many collections of books, fabric and notions at the Penny Sale. Support our local charities by purchasing a raffle ticket that could make you the lucky winner of the exquisite blue and white Cocheco raffle quilt, shown here. Meet some of our skilled quilters. Sit in on a demonstration by our members and try your hand at something new. When you need a break, our food vendor has breakfast, lunch and snacks for you to enjoy in the lounge across the hallway from the main show floor.

Our show is scheduled smack dab in the middle of foliage season, and Mother Nature usually puts on great colors. Rochester, NH, is only an hour from Center Harbor, the home of Keepsake Quilting, a trip that will take you through the beautiful scenery of New Hampshire's lakes region. Enjoy side trips to a number of fine quilt shops while you're here.

Let us know how we can help you plan a bus or car caravan to our show. We'd love to have you join us!
